The cleanest, brightest and really, in the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks."

This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light.

Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

We have a complete stock of everything in this line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers

It is just a little over 400 years ago since the Spanish flag appeared in the Western hemisphere. What a future Spain has behind it.—The Press, Philadelphia.

Sort of a Mongrel Horde

PHILIPPINE ISLANDS COMPOSED OF MANY TRIBES.

Original People Were Negroes—The Malays Now Predominate—Two Sets of Spaniards.

The original people of the Philippines are supposed to have been the dark skinned race known as Negritos, from their color, says the Philadelphia record. Through the islands are scattered 25,000 of them. They are dwarfs, with flat noses, full lips, and frizzly hair, and they have a little way with them of smoking cigars with the burning end placed inside their mouths. They are a wandering people whom the Malays have driven to the more inaccessible parts, from which they descend to sell wax to the Chinese traders in exchange for betel and tobacco; the dog is their only domestic animal.

The Malay tribes form the bulk of the population, varying among themselves in physical appearance; the first place among them must be accorded to the Tagals. The people of this branch dwell near the water in houses built on piles, and, though they are Catholics, traces of their old faith and customs abound. They have round heads, high cheek bones, flat noses, low brows and large dark eyes, and their favorite amusement is cock fighting. As in Spain, Mr. Cook is armed with steel gaffs. They have a written language antedating the arrival of the Spaniards; an alphabet of their own of sixteen letters, a passion for music and the drama and a wonderful collection of native lyric poetry.

Another Malay tribe, the Visayas, the Spaniards in the fifteenth century christened the Pintados, or "Painted Ones."

The Igorrotes are the wild tribes of the Philippines, the name being loosely given to all the rugged mountain tribes of Luzon. They differ from the Malay tribes, showing what looks to be traces of the Chinese or Japanese admixture. They are industrious agriculturists, skillfully laying out their fields on the mountain sides and irrigating them with artificial canals, in addition to their fine work on metals.

So those of us who have labored under the delusion that the industries of the natives were confined to making Manila hats, mats, rope and paper may enlarge our views. The native hat, by the way, is of woven cane or straw, butterfly-shaped, hemispherical if you prefer, with a frame inside.

IMMIGRATION.
As a result of favorable reports sent there a number of families from Southern California will, it is said, soon come to this island, and engage in agricultural pursuits.

HOME FROM SCHOOL.

WAIMANALO STOCK.
The two Hawaiian Princes have submitted the question to the Supreme Court of whether W. M. Giffard can be compelled to reissue fifteen shares of Kapiolani stock in Waimanalo, without the Queen Dowager's endorsement.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars, and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands. All druggists and dealers.
